

UNO PROMO

CREATES CONSUMER ENGAGEMENT

UNO Promo is more than a cost-efficient and convenient InPac™ solution for automated collection of low volumes of non-refillable containers.

UNO Promo can also be turned into a marketing-tool for targeted promotions and communication. By enabling consumer identification, the individual recycling activity can be uniquely rewarded, in turn increasing engagement. It can also interface social media so the consumer can promote his recycling activities.

THIRD-PARTY INTERFACE HYGIENIC

- A third-party interface and large touch display makes it attractive for partners
- User ID solution and social media interface engage consumers
- Turns the reverse vending machine into a viable marketing channel

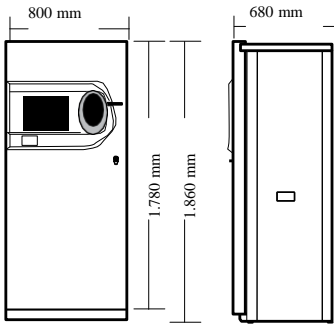

WRAP IT

- Flat, large cabinet surface ideal for wrapping
- Easy detachable infeed details to make the job fast and simple

- Plug & Play installation
- The areas that need cleaning are clearly marked
- Easy to empty all storage compartments
